

Spare and unbuilt edges by length

Print this and cut out the bars to physically assemble various shapes we could make out of our unbuilt edges. We can control these with LX and bring them to fundraising events.

As long as it's a flat planar arrangement, mapping in LX will not require code (anyone can map linear fixtures in the GUI).

